

Focus: Argumentative

Mousa Bokhamseen

Revised RQ: Is the GRE an accurate measuring tool of an individual's intelligence, knowledge, or capability?
(This can be phrased as a yes/no question, as indicated in the rhetorical focus section above.)

Keywords: GRE, Graduate Record Examination, measuring tool, measure, intelligence, knowledge, capability.

Expanded Standardized test, Educational Testing Service (ETS), exam, general test, computer-based test, paper-

List of Words: based test, verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, critical thinking, analytical writing skills, emphasis, influence, admittance, graduate programs, graduate application, acceptance, score, usefulness, criticism, critique, etc.

Focusing Your Topic, Research Question(s), and Search Term List and Writing a Topic Proposal

Complete this worksheet to help you narrow your topic and decide on your approach, focus, questions, and key words. This is due on Thursday 6/30.

General Topic: Health care system in US VS. Saudi Arabia.

Why I am interested: Because I have experienced health care in both US and Saudi Arabia and I want to know more about them by doing my research.

Questions:

- ① I already have insurance through my job - what happens to me?
- ② if I don't have health insurance now, how will affect me?
- ③ how the high cost of health care impact on the different kind of ppl in both countries, KSA, USA

Approach: Expository / informative

Focus: comparison / contrast

Revised RQ: is the health care in both US and Saudi Arabia provide more the best health care for their citizens, Maybe too specific, also question is off-focus/approach & needs to be reworded.

Keywords: insurance, hospitals, doctors, patients, medical, sick health,

Expanded

List of Words: ? warranty, clinic, emergency, health service, nursing, surgery, sanatorium, sanitarium.